ITINERARY

NOVEMBER 16, TUESDAY, LISBON

On arrival in Lisbon, a private coach will take your group to stay four nights at As Janelas Verdes, a beautiful 18th-century mansion, once the residence of the famous Portuguese novelist, Eça de Queiró and located near the National Ancient Art Museum.

NOVEMBER 17, WEDNESDAY, LISBON

Meet a guide this morning and set out on a 3-hour private guided walking tour through Lisbon. Gain local insight into Lisbon on this tour that covers historic highlights, culinary delights, and Portuguese culture.

NOVEMBER 18, THURSDAY, SINTRA & CASCAIS

Sintra is one of the most delightful places to be found in Portugal. With its extensive range of green craggy hills — the Serra de Sintra — so picturesquely situated and offering incredible views of the coastline, Sintra is indeed “a garden of the earthly paradise.”

NOVEMBER 19, FRIDAY, LISBON

Morning: Small group half-day food walking tour in Lisbon; Afternoon: free time; Evening: Small group cooking class in Lisbon, including dinner and drinks.
